Town Clerk Kevin J. LaValle Announces Reelection Bid for Brookhaven Town Clerk

BROOKHAVEN, NY – Town Clerk Kevin J. LaValle kicked off his 2025 reelection campaign at the Rocky Point VFW Post 6249 on Tuesday, February 4, 2025 at 11:30AM.

“As Town Clerk, my top priority has been to safeguard our residents’ sensitive information. I have worked to modernize and streamline processes, so residents can securely access their records while also launching a multimedia campaign and mobile office hours to increase accessibility and transparency of Town Clerk services. I will continue to make Brookhaven Town safer and more transparent for all residents.”

LaValle, the sitting Brookhaven Town Clerk and former Town Councilman, outlined his accomplishments as Town Clerk, which include protecting residents’ personal data, ensuring easy access to vital services, and making the Clerk’s office more transparent for Brookhaven residents.

Through his proven dedication, experience, and commitment to getting the job done right, Kevin will continue to serve as a champion for a Safer and More Transparent Brookhaven—one that values security, transparency, and accessibility for every resident.

LaValle was elected to the Town Clerk’s office in a special election on January 17, 2023. Prior to that, Kevin proudly served the residents of the Third Council District in Brookhaven for nine years.
